League Plate Semi-Final

Venue: Cottenham United FC

From the Sawbowfc dugout

Well this is a strange start to the programme as we are playing at Cottenham United FC and both teams today are the away side so as to speak. But as Sawbridgeworth Town are the first drawn we have taken the mantle of being the home side for this semi-final game.

I must firstly thank the management of Cottenham United LFC for their superb quick help in letting us use this facility as after several tries to getting other grounds and getting turned down we are thankful to be able to play on at least a flat and wide surface.

Sawbridgeworth have reached this point in the competition by at first being beaten 1-0 in the 1st round of the cup by Godmanchester Rovers but then winning the plate games against Arlesey Town 3-2 aet and then Huntingdon Town 2-1.

Stevenage have got to the semi-final by starting in the 1st round of the cup with a nail biting 5-4 victory after extra time and penalties against AFC Kempston Rovers followed by a narrow defeat against Kettering Town in the next round by 3-2. Then into the plate competition Stanway were the next opponents that were dispatched 5-0 and then a 1-0 win over Mulbarton Belles.

Over the past couple of seasons the games between these two Hertfordshire sides has produced very few goals but to the independent some interesting and enthralling games. This season both clubs have produced sound defensive attitudes that is reflected in the goals against column in the league table. During this season Stevenage started the better of the two clubs but at this moment in time Sawbridgeworth have managed to keep a good spirit going that has seen them top the division for some weeks but after a hard fought game against AFC Kempston Rovers last week it sees then now looking at a runners up spot rather than the championship that they were looking for.

With the new facilities at Codicote, Stevenage can look forward with renewed aspirations as their ground and club house will allow progress through the region and if wanted, up into the combinations if they can maintain the level of ability that is in the club. Along with Sawbridgeworth a men's club backing is very much needed if the ladies game as a whole is to be allowed to develop and progress into the sport that we all would like it to be.

All that is left for me to say is

'COME ON YOU ROBINS'

Dave Dawson (Manager)

Sawbridgeworth Town Women's FC

1st team squad pen pictures

- Ann Anstey: A tenacious midfield player who does not understand the words 'give up'. Competent with both feet and has scored the odd goal. A superb talent in the middle of the park
- Nicky Clifford: A greatly improved defender who has made the right back slot her own. Now more adventurous as she pushes forward and recovers well to support her fellow players.
- Laura Day: The clubs top goal scorer who has just recovered her form. A barren spell of some 8 games has been put aside as she has hit the net 3 times in the last two outings. Good feet and a footballing brain.
- Judith Duffin: A very quick and talented player who has emerged this season as an outstanding player. A recent injury has prevented her from achieving the goals that she has set her self this season.
- Gaynor Fisher: Has shown good ability in the games played this season. A recent injury has prevented the improvement that this player had shown in earlier games
- Hannah Fraser: A very quick talented defender who always seems to get the ball when to all it is lost. Has made the left defensive spot her own with some outstanding performances
- Jo Gregory: Has played all across the park and has always acquitted herself above expectation. A very dependable player. The type of player every squad should have, not only a talented player but also very competent in all aspects of the game
- Clare Halfpenny: A quick defender who has been used in midfield and attack. Has also scored goals last term. Dedicated to fitness. Will push through the pain barrier for her team because she does not like to be beaten.
- Robyn McFayden: A solid and focussed defender who is quick to assess the situation and to carry out the remedy. Belies her young years. A player who is one of those that is first on the team sheet each week. An almost must play player.
- Carlye Stein: A central midfielder who has had to adapt to the right midfield and has slotted into that position with ease and has picked up goals as also she supports the front line well.
- Jackie Stott: Has the ability to hold and slow down play to her speed while showing speed of mind and feet. Solid in the tackle superb distribution. A powerhouse midfielder who also has deft of touch. Free kicks and corners are driven or floated into the danger area with precision.
- Claire Taylor A recent signing who started with Sawbridgeworth Town Reserves but her quality has seen her progression to the first team squad. A very talented forward who links well with other players. A very good prospect
- Debbie Williams: Goalkeeper who throughout last season did her fair share of work to keep the side alive in games that should have been dead and gone. A fearless keeper who will put her head where the boots are flying to save the ball.
- Nina Witteridge: Captain with an extreme desire to win every game and drives every player to feel the same. Strong, determined, and focussed. Has shown great maturity this season in her self awareness and self motivation.
- John Day: Club assistant who helps on match day by running the line. A thankless task that he does with great understanding and ability.
- Dave Dawson: Manager, Coach, etc. 27 years experience with the last 16 years of those with the ladies. Qualified FA Coach who is dedicated to coaching the game in the right spirit and attitude.

Today's Officials:

A view from both camps

Sunday 5th March 2006

Stevenage Borough v Sawbridgeworth Town 0—0

When Sawbridgeworth, with the best defensive record in the league, visited Borough, with the second-best defensive record, on Sunday; the resulting goal-less draw could almost be viewed as a foregone conclusion.

However, a strong wind provided the game with an unpredictable factor. Sawbridgeworth, playing with the wind in the first period, spent much of the time camped in the Borough half; in truth, though, they only fashioned one decent chance, which Rosie Millbrow saved well. All change in the second half, this time with Borough in the ascendant; it was the turn of the Sawbridgeworth keeper to pull off a fine save from a Dominique Godbeer free-kick.

No goals to show for 90 minutes endeavour, but a fiercely contested game in which only the end result was missing. Borough's young side, missing three key players, had to match Sawbridgeworth's physical approach, and it was to their credit that they did so. The point took Sawbridgeworth back to the top of the table after Kettering's shock hammering at Godmanchester, and kept Borough in touch in sixth place with games in hand.

Borough are at home again next week in the quarter-finals of the League Plate, when Mulbarton Belles make the long trip from Norfolk. Kick off 2pm, at the Codicote Recreation Ground.

A short trip along the A414 takes you almost to Codicote the home of Stevenage Borough. With the best two defensive records in the division this was never going to be a high scoring game and with the added ingredient of a gusting wind control was going to be a major factor as well.

After last weeks poor performance Sawbo were keen to put that behind them and produce a worthwhile display against Stevenage and try to keep the pressure on Kettering for the top spot in the division. With the wind at their backs Sawbo kept possession well and several chances were created within the first 20 minutes with three corners being awarded almost one after another as the Robins looked for the opening goal. Stevenage were having trouble defending against the flowing Sawbo side and but for some late defensive tackles that on several players left their mark Sawbo can feel aggrieved that their efforts did not produce the goal/s that their overall first half possession should have given them. At times the competitive nature of the game came close to boiling point as the referee did not have control of the game and several challenges went unpunished. The worst of which was a two footed challenge on Ann Anstey that left a hole in her sock and a bruised shin from the studs of the Stevenage midfielder.

The second half saw Stevenage have a little more possession as with the wind in their favour they tried to outwit the Sawbo defence with long floated balls that were meant to drop over into the space behind but sound defensive understanding by Robyn McFayden swept the ball away and another Sawbo attack was underway. Sawbo came closest to scoring with just 4 minutes remaining when Carlye Stein tried to half shoot and half lob the Stevenage keeper only to see the keepers despairing hands claw the ball away, the ball took an age to fall and Joanne Gregory was on hand but the wait took its toll and the final shot went agonizingly over the bar. This was a much better performance from the Robins as the team ethic returned, along with the overall performance was the return of a clean sheet which was a must as next week Sawbridgeworth Town entertain Huntingdon Town in the Quarter final of the League Plate.

With Kettering Town loosing to Godmanchester Rovers it means that the Robins reclaim top spot on goal difference

End of season 7-a-side tournament

& ERWFL Presentation Evening

Saturday June 3rd 2006

Burton Park, Kettering

The Eastern Region Women's Football League is going to host a 7-a-side tournament which will be open to all registered clubs within the region. Teams can be up to 12 players strong where you can play any 3 from 5 substitutes named. Normal small sided game rules (yet to be finalised) will be sent out prior to the tournament.

After the day tournament the end of season Presentation Night will take over until late at the same venue. You will be able to pitch a tent (small cost per person charged) or there are some local hotels that the ERWFL are trying to get at reduced rates for the one night stay.

Look out in the post as the application form is on its way. Only current registered players of the ERWFL will be allowed to play. Put the date in your diary this could be the start of a regular annual event.
